

Department of Building Safety
Building Codes
Floodplain Development
Zoning Code

Commercial Main Structure Submittals with Accessory Structures on the Same Plans

Accessory structures may be included on the building plans however, a separate application is required unless the accessory structure is physically attached to a permitted primary structure or building. These separate applications may be submitted concurrently with the main building application.

Examples of accessory structures that require a separate application include:

Fences over 7'

Trash enclosures

Monument signs

Wall signs

Gazebo/pergola

Mail kiosks